

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Cable bills will go up without the pretext of competition as will internet service as ISP's to choose from will become fewer and fewer. Content of both cable and internet will greatly suffer as well.
